

Activity Report

(NES Innovation Awards 2021)

Academic Year: 2021-22

Name of Event: Prize Distribution Ceremony

Topic: Most Commendable Project: “COVID Tracker for Medical Front-liners”

Name of the Guest: Dr. Arvind Shaligram. CEO, SPPU Research Park Foundation
Mr. Sharad Pustake. President, Foundation for Interdisciplinary Research

Date & Time of the Event: August 18, 2021, 2:00 to 4:00 pm

Targeted Audience: Faculty members

Venue: Convention Centre

Coordinator: Dr. Sandeep Patil

Number of Participants: 21

Activity Description in Nutshell:

I²IT Students received the NES Innovation Awards 2021 for Most Commendable Project entitled “COVID Tracker for Medical Front-liners” by the auspicious hands of Honorable Padma Vibhushan Dr. Raghunath Mashelkar. On this occasion all the stakeholders of this project, the Principal, faculty mentors Dr. Sandeep Patil and Prof. Prashant Gadakh and the Student Innovators were felicitated with the cash prize of Rs. 10,000/-, Certificates and Appreciation Letter by Foundation for Interdisciplinary Research (FIR), Pune.

“COVID Tracker for Medical Front-liners” is a multi-user cross-platform web app which is used to manage the Covid-19 patients right from the time they are tested positive to the time they are discharged from the hospital. This project is developed under the memorandum of understanding with Kshiti CleanTech Pvt. Ltd, Consultant, Thane Smart City Limited through Foundation for Interdisciplinary Research (FIR), Pune.

Student Innovators:

Vikramjit Banerjee, Rajeev Ramesh, Aman Shinde, Siddhant Singh,
Akshansh Jaiswal, Manali Kasawa, Chaitra Bhatt and Avani Pathak

Event Photos:

Prize Distribution

The Project Team along with dignitaries.