

International Institute of Information Technology, Pune

Department of Computer Engineering

Activity Report

Guest Lecture on “Internet of Things”

Date: 3/09/2018

Event: Guest Lecture

Date: 3/09/2018

Time: 2.30 pm to 3.30 pm

Target Audience: 70

No of Participants:

Venue: Class Room (A-223)

Topic: Internet of Things

Resource Person: Mr. Sandesh Mahamure

Coordinator: Prof. Prashant Gadakh

Objectives:

- To study Development of a marketplace for applications and services to foster an IoT ecosystem.
- Development of the open BIG IoT API as a generic interface to multi-domain smart object platforms.
- To understand the fundamentals problem.

Outcomes:

- Interpret the vision of IoT from a global context
- To express the understanding of IoT.

On completion of this lecture students are able to

- Identify the different problem based on the IoT and they can find out the solution of problem by using IoT.

Activity Report:

Its been an honor to invite the speaker Mr. Sandesh Mahamure, to conduct the guest lecture on "Internet of Things " for SE computer Students to make them understand about the concepts like Different types of problem, how to solve the problems. In this guest lecture students were enthusiastically participated and learnt the concepts. The event was coordinated by Prof. Prashant Gadakh and concluded this event by giving memento and saying Thanks to the speaker.

Event Photographs

