

International Institute of Information Technology, Pune

Department of Computer Engineering

Activity Report

Guest Lecture on “Principles of Object Oriented Programming”

Date: 6th August, 2018

Event: Guest Lecture

Date: 3rd August, 2018

Time: 03:30 PM to 05:30 PM

Target Audience: SE Computer Engineering Students

No of Participants: 63

Venue: A-223

Topic: “Principles of Object Oriented Programming”

Resource Person: Mr. Satyanarayan Khandelwal as Expert from L and T Infotech , Pune.

Coordinator: Dr. Sashikala Mishra

Objectives:

- To discuss advanced feature of OOP relating with the basics
- To know applications of OOP as per the industry requirement
- To develop awareness on technical interviewing techniques and to prepare for technical interviews

Outcomes:

On completion of this course students will be able

- To able to get Industry Exposure and applications of OOP
- To relate the syllabus of OOP as per industry prospect
- To able get the Ideas for the innovative projects

Activity Description: This guest lecture was organized for SE students to make them aware about the practical applications of the knowledge they acquire during theory and practical session. The guest speaker also guided the students about how to choose a project domain and implement their ideas effectively and even the importance of OOP in Industry.

Photographs of event:

