DHRUVA'14

Dhruva, the Annual Techno - Cultural festival of I²IT, was yet another milestone in I²IT's journey towards Innovation & Leadership. Spanning over 4 days from February 12 - 15, Dhruva'14, was a mélange of technical & cultural events.

This year, Dhruva was sponsored by Tata Docomo, advertised by Red FM 93.5 and Seasons Mall. With over 1000 students, the event kicked off with Eclectic, the technical fest which saw a multiplicity of events, constituting Techno Hunt - the Technical Treasure Hunt, C - Sector - a Programmer's ultimate quest, Google IT to test one's knack of googling, Mechatronics - mechanizing electronic circuits, Giant Jenga - the brick balancing act, Mock Interviews - an emulation of campus placements and Robot on - the survival test for the fittest robot on the circuit.

The students and staff delighted in the hustle and bustle of the fun zone where they could try their luck at simple games and also got their nails painted artistically, got funky hair - dos and stylish tattoos.

The Intra-college flagship event Codename Hallucination had the evenings of Eclectic engaged. This event was full of thrill, surprise and horror and had the largest number of participants. The Antakshari of songs, from the evergreen oldies to the latest party tracks, around the bonfire in the chilly nights uplifted the festive mood until midnight.

The campus was draped in a myriad of colors and lights throughout the event. It was an added ingredient to the ebullience of Dhruva'14.

Then, the morning of February 14 began on a euphonious note as 'Aaroh' - the singing competition marked the commencement of Pinnacus, the cultural festival. It was followed by the prize distribution ceremony for all lauding those who excelled in academics and sports.

The evening showcased the multitudinous talents of the students from colleges across Pune in 'Tap your Feet', the unparalleled dance - off. The exuberance and vivacity of the participants had the judges' jaws drop.

And the final day; had more fun events like the Spartan Challenge - the strength and stress test, Man vs. Food - the gorgers' paradise and Snap Hunt - the search for the best captured moment on film. The evening had a propitious line up of performances from I²IT's own students where they sang, danced, enacted and walked the ramp with poise.

The celebration continued into the night as everybody swayed to the tracks mixed by DJ RT played live in the DJ Night by Double Tree Hilton.

The relentless efforts of the organizers, volunteers and the supporting staff throughout the wee hours of the night certainly paid off as the event was a success.

WOMEN'S PROWESS '14

The eighth edition of the Women's Prowess, an event presented by I²IT and NES, was held on March 1st, 2014. It aimed at inspiring and motivating hundreds of young women to raise their spirit and be the best that they can be.

This event has always featured prominently on the cultural calendar of I²IT. The event composed of two panel discussions which had some of the most preeminent personalities who have accomplished success and fame in their walks of life followed by a workshop, 'Reach for the stars', which was conducted by Anand David, Founder Director, Manford Consultants.

The audience was first addressed by Aruna Katara, President of I²IT followed by Ganesh Natarajan, chairman of NASSCOM and Global CEO of Zensar Technologies, who enlightened the audience about the event while stressing on the dire need for empowering the woman of today.

The first panel discussion was moderated by Pradeep Bhargava, Director of Cummins India Ltd. and the panelists included
