Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern

I have known Ms.Sakshi Buchade for last three months, since the beginning of her Virtual Internship with InTech Olympiad. During the Internship, Sakshi worked as a Member of a Team with a group assignment on "Achieve Effective Online/Remote/Distance Education in Rural Areas with Limited Resources and Unsupervised Learning, Evaluation & Assessment framework".

This was a Remote Internship during which the Team Members at different & distant locations collaborated on line for arriving at an Actionable Road Map for the subject assignment.

I, the undersigned, mentored the team on behalf of InTech Olympiad, an Organization in Pune conducting various experiments to identify and bridge the gap in Industry's expectations regarding Skills available with Fresh Graduate Engineers. During this Internship, as a Mentor, I interacted with the Team as well as Individuals frequently, during routine and periodic progress review meetings.

During these interactions, I noted Sakshi as a Team Player who quickly adapted to the unknown and distant team members. Sakshi participated in the Internship with appreciable Openness regarding her Team Members' perspectives.

Looking at the extra & passionate efforts Sakshi is taking, I am sure that she is going to excel specifically in Web Development & Cloud Server Implementations. While working on Technical Documentation for the Problem Statement, I noted her Adaptability trait with special emphasis.
