Activity Description in Nutshell:

The annual Dhruvaunfolded with the literary spectacle "Granth Dindi," celebrating the rich heritage of Indian literature. Following this, "Dhwani," a riveting singing competition, showcased the musical prowess of ten talented participants across diverse genres.

The event concluded with the energetic prize distribution ceremony for "Askara," the annual sports competition. Athletes were recognized for their outstanding performances, emphasizing teamwork, fair play, and dedication.

As the curtains rose on the much-anticipated annual fest, Dhruva, the first formal event, "Dhwani" set the stage ablaze with melodious tunes and soulful performances. The competition showcased a diverse array of musical genres, from classical to contemporary, demonstrating the versatility and skill of the participants. Our panel of esteemed judges Prof. Mahesh Waghmare Sir and Satish Hatagade Sir, faced the challenging task of evaluating the performances based on vocal quality, stage presence, and overall artistic expression.

"Dhwani" not only provided a platform for budding musicians to showcase their skills but also fostered a sense of camaraderie and appreciation for the arts among the college community. The event successfully set the tone for the upcoming days of Dhruva, promising a festival filled with cultural vibrancy and artistic expression. Sakshi Kulkarni (SE IT) and Surabhi Annigeri (BE Comp) were the Winner and Runner up respectively of Dhwani 2024.
