Activity Description in Nutshell:

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit initiated a noteworthy project to prepare and distribute Ayushman Bharat Cards in Khamboli Village, located in the Mulshi tahasil of Pune District. This endeavor, aligned with India's healthcare initiatives, aimed to provide financial protection and healthcare access to underserved populations. Under the guidance of our NSS program officer, meticulous planning was undertaken, including comprehensive training sessions for NSS volunteers, facilitating data collection and verification, and organizing distribution camps within the village. NSS volunteers actively engaged with residents, elucidating the benefits of the Ayushman Bharat scheme and aiding in the enrollment process. This initiative yielded tangible outcomes, bolstering healthcare access and awareness in Khamboli Village, while nurturing community empowerment and civic responsibility.

The endeavors of the NSS Unit in Khamboli Village exemplify its steadfast commitment to social responsibility and community welfare. By facilitating the enrollment and distribution of Ayushman Bharat Cards, NSS volunteers have made a significant contribution to enhancing healthcare access for vulnerable populations. To ensure the sustained effectiveness of such initiatives in promoting healthcare equity and societal development, continued collaboration between NSS, local healthcare authorities, and community stakeholders is indispensable.
