Activity Description in Nutshell: On January 8, 2025, Shivam Kumar Singh, an alumnus of the International Institute of Information Technology (I²IT), conducted an insightful session on "Navigating Career Transitions." Currently pursuing an MS in Information Systems and having interned at Arista, Shivam shared his personal experiences and valuable strategies for smoothly transitioning between academic and professional phases.

He discussed key aspects such as choosing the right career path, upskilling for industry demands, handling job market uncertainties, and leveraging internships and networking opportunities. The session was interactive, with students engaging in Q&A, gaining practical advice on making informed career decisions and adapting to evolving technology trends.
