Activity Description in Nutshell:

The Health Camp and Blood Donation Drive organized on Founder's Day (PP Chhabria sir's birthday anniversary) proved to be an outstanding success, embodying our commitment to community welfare and humanity. The event aimed to provide essential health services, promote awareness about preventive healthcare, and contribute to the local blood bank.

Qualified healthcare professionals conducted thorough health check-ups, covering blood pressure, blood sugar, and general consultations. The Blood Donation Drive witnessed an impressive turnout, with active participation from students, and college staff members. Dedicated volunteers played a crucial role in ensuring the smooth organization and coordination of the event. Their commitment to making a positive impact in our community is highly commendable.
