REPORT on “Swachh Wari-Swastha Wari- Nirmal Wari- Harit Wari, SPPU NSS Wari”

The students of International Institute of Information Technology, Hinjawadi, Pune, were participated in different services given to warkaris on the pathway of Dehu-Pandharpur way at Akurdi on 26th and 27th June 2019. The annual pilgrimage of the warkaris arrived in the city and students from our college done the cleanliness drive. The drive is conducted under SPPU's 'Swachh Wari-Swastha Wari- Nirmal Wari- Harit Wari' initiative by National Service Scheme (NSS) students. The annual pilgrimage of the warkaris arrived in the city. Students from various colleges under the umbrella of Savitribai Phule Pune University (SPPU) are used this occasion to launch a cleanliness drive and an awareness campaign. At least 35,000 student volunteers from five different universities/colleges has participated in the palkhi procession, and helped to clean up the villages, where the warkaris are reside. The drive has conducted under SPPU's 'Swachh Wari-Swastha Wari- Nirmal Wari- Harit Wari' initiative by National Service Scheme (NSS) students.

The students have accompanied the warkaris and clean up the area once the pilgrims leave. Leaf dishes (Patravali) is distributed to warkaris, which they have used for their meals. With this, at least one crore liter of water will be saved, which would be the best solution to save environment. On the second day, after dindi departures volunteers collect all patravali processes it to make compost fertilieser and plantation of around 2000 neem crops on Durga Tekdi in Pradhikaran.
