Activity Description in Nutshell:

In a celebration filled with cultural reverence and a commitment to holistic well-being, Shivajayanti unfolded at Shikshangram, a shelter for homeless children. This year's festivities were elevated by the generous donation of Shivcharitra books, study materials, and essential daily-use items, reflecting a profound dedication to both education and the children's overall development. The heart of the celebration was the donation of Shivcharitra and other total 60 books, providing the children with an opportunity to explore into the life and teachings of the great Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. This gift aimed to instill values of courage, leadership, and patriotism.

The impact of the Shivajayanti celebration at Shikshangram was profound. The donation of Shivcharitra books, study materials, and daily-use items not only addressed immediate needs but also nurtured the intellectual and emotional growth of the children. The sense of cultural pride and the touchable resources received left a fixed mark on their minds.

In the spirit of Shivaji Maharaj, this celebration not only embraced cultural traditions but also laid the foundation for empowering the future generation through education. The hope is that these efforts contribute significantly to the holistic development and academic success of the children at Shikshangram.
