

Hope Foundation's
International Institute of Information Technology,
Hinjawadi, Pune – 411057

---

Activity Report

Women's Day Celebration (Verse 1)

Academic Year: 2023-24

Name of Event: Verses of Symphony (Verse 1)

Date & Time of Conduction: 4/03/2024 3:00 PM to 4:30 PM

Targeted Audience: SE & TE & BE

Venue: Convention Centre (CC)

Guest Lecture: Adv. Kranti Gargote

Lecture Topic: Historical Women and Modern Women

Event Description In-Short:

The event began with the anchor outlining the schedule for the four-day event. Following this, Adv. Kranti Gargote was honoured with a felicitation by I2IT. Subsequently, she commenced her speech, during which she elucidated how individuals could regain control of their lives by adhering to the ethics exemplified by Shivaji Maharaj. Furthermore, she highlighted the commendable contributions of women such as Mother Teresa, Sindhutai Sapkal, and Savitribai Phule. The event proved to be an enlightening experience for all attendees, offering valuable insights and learning opportunities.

Course Outcome (CO) for "Verses of Symphony (Verse 1)":

1. Historical Understanding: Students will gain a deeper understanding of the historical context surrounding women's contributions to society, as elucidated by Adv. Kranti Gargote, thereby broadening their historical knowledge base.
2. Ethical Awareness: Attendees will reflect on the ethical principles exemplified by historical figures like Shivaji Maharaj, as discussed in the lecture, fostering an awareness of ethical considerations relevant to contemporary life situations.
3. Gender Sensitivity: Through the exploration of the contributions of notable women such as Mother Teresa, Sindhutai Sapkal, and Savitribai Phule, students will develop sensitivity towards gender issues and recognize the importance of acknowledging and celebrating women's achievements in various spheres.

4. Inspirational Learning: The event aims to inspire students by showcasing the exemplary achievements of historical and modern women, motivating them to emulate their values and pursue endeavours that contribute positively to society.

5. Critical Analysis: Attendees will engage in critical analysis of the lecture content, evaluating the relevance of historical perspectives and lessons for contemporary society, thus honing their critical thinking skills.

Event Photos:

Prachi Milekar
Prof Prachi Milekar

Hope Foundation's
International Institute of Information Technology,
Hinjawadi, Pune – 411057

---

Activity Report

Women's Day Celebration (Verse 2)

Academic Year: 2023-24

Name of Event: Verses of Symphony (Verse 2)

Date & Time of Conduction: 5/03/2024 3:00 PM to 4:30 PM

Targeted Audience: SE & TE & BE students

Venue: Convention Centre (CC)

Guest Lecture: Dr.Vaishali Lodha & Dr.Sanskriti Godse

Lecture Topic: Lifestyle disorder and how to avoid that by healthy lifestyle.

Event Description In-Short:

Day 2, Verse 2, commenced with the felicitation of the guests by the college HODs. Dr. Vaishali Lodha then began her speech, addressing each attendee on how to improve health by making adjustments to their daily diet. Following her presentation, she initiated a question-and-answer session, responding to the queries of the attendees and concluding her speech. Subsequently, Dr. Sanskruti shared her valuable insights. She demonstrated how she and her community support elderly people by providing them with medical assistance. Furthermore, she encouraged every attendee to help those in need. Then the event concluded with the open talent show.

Course Outcome (CO) for "Verses Of Symphony (Verse 2)":

1. Health Awareness: Through Dr. Vaishali Lodha's lecture on lifestyle disorders and healthy living, students will develop awareness of the impact of lifestyle choices on their health, empowering them to make informed decisions to prevent and mitigate lifestyle-related health issues.
2. Nutritional Knowledge: Attendees will gain knowledge about the importance of dietary adjustments in promoting overall health and well-being, as discussed by Dr. Lodha, fostering an understanding of nutrition's role in disease prevention and management.
3. Community Engagement: Dr. Sanskruti Godse's presentation on supporting the elderly community will inspire students to actively engage in community service initiatives, cultivating empathy and a sense of social responsibility towards vulnerable populations.

4. Interdisciplinary Learning: The event offers interdisciplinary insights into health and social care, integrating perspectives from medical professionals and community advocates, thereby enriching students' understanding of holistic approaches to health promotion and social welfare.

5. Talent Exploration: The open talent show at the conclusion of the event provides students with a platform to showcase their diverse talents and creativity, fostering a culture of appreciation for artistic expression and individuality within the academic community.

Event Photos:

Prachi Nilekar
 Prof. Prachi Nilekar

Hope Foundation's
International Institute of Information Technology,
Hinjawadi, Pune – 411057

---

Activity Report

Women's Day Celebration (Verse 3)

Academic Year: 2023-24

Name of Event: Verses of Symphony (Verse 3)

Date & Time of Conduction: 6/03/2024 3:00 PM to 4:30 PM

Targeted Audience: SE, TE & BE students

Venue: Convention Centre (CC)

Guest Lecture: Ms. Rakhi Pal & Gayatri Kharat

Lecture Topic: Setup start-up at the early stage.

Event Description In-Short:

Day 3, Verse 3, began with the felicitation of the guests by the college faculty, setting the stage for the day's events. Ms. Rakhi Pal commenced with her speech, sharing her early journey in business. She recounted the challenges she faced, how she overcame them, and subsequently established a successful business. Additionally, she discussed how one could start their own start-up in today's date.

Following Ms. Pal, Gayatri Kharat took the stage to share insights on how to embody the qualities of Arjuna in today's context, emphasizing behaviours that enhance one's public demeanour.

The event concluded with a quiz show in which both students and faculty members participated. Winners were awarded prizes based on their positions, marking a joyful end to the day's proceedings.

Course Outcome for verses of symphony (verse 3):

1. Knowledge Acquisition: Students will gain insights into the challenges and triumphs of entrepreneurship through Ms. Rakhi Pal's lecture, equipping them with foundational knowledge to navigate the early stages of starting a business.
2. Critical Thinking: Attendees will critically analyze Ms. Pal's entrepreneurial journey, identifying key strategies and decision-making processes that led to her success, fostering a deeper understanding of the complexities involved in startup ventures.

3. Leadership Development: By delving into the characteristics of Arjuna discussed by Gayatri Kharat, participants will develop an understanding of effective leadership traits applicable to modern contexts, enabling them to cultivate leadership qualities essential for professional growth.
4. Communication Skills Enhancement: Through participation in the quiz show and interaction with both the guest speakers and peers, students will refine their communication skills, fostering the ability to articulate ideas effectively and engage in constructive dialogue.
5. Motivational Inspiration: The event aims to inspire students to pursue entrepreneurial endeavors and adopt leadership qualities exemplified by Arjuna, motivating them to embark on their professional journeys with confidence and determination.

Event Photos:

Prof Prachi Nivkar

Hope Foundation's
International Institute of Information Technology,
Hinjawadi, Pune – 411057

---

Activity Report

Women's Day Celebration (Verse 4)

Academic Year: 2023-24

Name of Event: Women's Day-4

Topic: Panel Discussion on Women empowerment

Date & Time of Conduction: 7th March 2024, 02:30 p.m.-04:30 p.m.

Targeted Audience: SE/TE/BE students

Venue: Convention Centre

Number of Participants: 60 students.

Activity Description: On the final day of women's week celebration, a panel discussion on the topic of women's empowerment was organized by the committee. The panel consisted of both students and faculty members who shared their insightful thoughts and perspectives on the subject.

Students and faculty members alike actively participated in the discussion, offering a diverse range of viewpoints and experiences. Topics such as gender equality, access to education and employment opportunities, and challenging societal norms were discussed in depth.

The panel discussion provided a platform for meaningful dialogue and reflection, fostering a greater understanding of the importance of women's empowerment in today's society.

Following the panel discussion, a prize distribution ceremony was held to recognize the Contributions of participants. The committee distributed seed papers and chocolates among both students and faculty members as tokens of appreciation for their involvement and engagement throughout the event.

Overall, the panel discussion and prize distribution ceremony served as a fitting conclusion to the event, highlighting the significance of women's empowerment and celebrating the efforts of all involved.

Event Photos:

Prachi Nilekar
Prof-Prachi Nilekar

